Rug Reasoning.

There's no combating the argument that it is always best to buy goods from a house in whose stock that particular line belongs. Take Rugs, for instance. We can tell you about every Rug here. We don't "guess" that they are such and such a thing, or tell you that a Rug is a Smyrna when it is only really jute. Our salesmen know their own lines — have studied them — know the value of each Rug — its wearing qualities, &c. All this is of value to the buyer, outside of the question of price. It only stands to reason that the man who deals in these lines and is a big dealer is the man who gets better prices from the makers and is able to quote better prices to you. Here are some of our Rug prices, made low by the fact that we're the biggest buyers and dealers in Rugs in this section:
